This is based upon an English book of the same name which had appeared in many editions (7th, 1696; 27th, 1764) the author's name being given as J. Hill, which has been believed to be a pseudonym. From 1694-1700 it was imported and sold in Boston by Michael Perry. (See Littlefield, George Emery. Early schools and school-books of New England.)
The third Boston edition was printed by B. Green in 1703 [H.89.65], and attributed to Thomas Hill.

It's thought good to make a collection of such presidents [sic] as are circumstances of this country . . . , and the book has been rewritten.

It has been suggested that B. W. was Benjamin Wadsworth, President
